Corporate and Foundation Partners FAQs

- What are the essential functions of the Office of Corporate and Foundation Development?

We assist faculty and staff in proposal and concept development, private foundation or corporation research, and write and submit grant proposals.

- What are some of the successes that have resulted from private foundation or corporate gifts?

Since 2000, Florida State University has received more than $100 million in gifts from corporations and foundations—funding scholarships, professorships, research, programs and services. Visit news.fsu.edu to learn more about Florida State's successes.

- How can I obtain the Foundation's Form 990 and 990T, annual report or other relevant information?

To obtain a hardcopy of materials, contact Audrey Kilts, executive secretary for Corporate and Foundation Development, by email at akilts@foundation.fsu.edu or by phone at (850) 644-0769. The FSU Foundation's financial statements are reported each fiscal year in our Annual Report.
